Experience

Darryl Hart is Of Counsel to the firm. He has over forty-five years of experience in the practice of franchise law, including over eight years as General Counsel, and in various top-level executive positions, with Swensen's Ice Cream Company as it grew internationally to over 300 stores. He was one of the first five lawyers in California to be certified as a legal specialist in Franchise and Distribution Law by the State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization.

Mr. Hart's legal expertise and extensive practical experience provides a unique combination that allows him to guide both start-up franchisors in the development of their franchising programs and established franchising companies in their ongoing legal compliance as well as in issues that arise during their growth. He has served as an expert witness on franchising issues in litigation and arbitration matters.

Representative Cases

Mr. Hart has assisted franchising companies in a wide variety of industries including fast food and white table cloth restaurants, fitness studios, specialty coffee cafes, real estate brokerages, service industries and retailers of various types. He also counsels prospective franchisees in larger transactions in the analysis and negotiation of their Franchise and Master Development Agreements. He has extensive experience in franchising in foreign countries in cooperation with local counsel.
