Experience

Gabriella Wilkins is an associate with the firm. She focuses her practice on commercial and intellectual property litigation. She has represented a large range of clients as both plaintiffs and defendants throughout all stages of litigation, including drafting and arguing pleadings and dispositive motions, drafting and responding to complex discovery, conducting and defending depositions and handling trial preparation, mediations and arbitrations.

Prior to joining the firm, Gabriella successfully represented medium to large companies in disputes involving breach of contract, land disputes, unfair business practices, insurance bad faith and construction defect. During law school, she externed for both the Fourth District California Court of Appeals and the US District Court for the Southern District of California.
