Experience

Louise Ann "Luzann" Fernandez is co-chair of the Labor and Employment practice group, with more than 30 years of experience. Luzann is a fierce litigator who is hired by corporations, hospitals, and celebrities for high profile and exposure cases. Luzann does not back down from challenges facing her clients and comes up with out of the box and novel theories.

Luzann is also active as an independent investigator. Using her litigation experience, Luzann investigates claims of discrimination, retaliation, harassment, and other corporate compliance issues.

Luzann serves as a mediator and is a volunteer mediator for the Central District of California Mediation/Conciliation program. She brings her extensive experience to resolve conflicts.

Prior to joining the firm, Luzann was the Chair of the Labor and Employment practice group at Jeffer Mangels Butler & Mitchell LLP where she founded the group. Luzann started her legal career as a field attorney at the National Labor Relations Board.

Representative Cases

Represented entertainment executive against false accusations of sexual assault. Obtained both a dismissal, seven-figure public settlement on a malicious prosecution case in favor of the executive, and a public apology in the New York Times.

Represented technology company in its litigation against C-Suite executives who misappropriated trade secrets and company resources to start a competing venture. Luzann was able to obtain jurisdiction over the foreign nationals which was pivotal to the case.

Defeated class certification on behalf of numerous clients.

Architect of strategy to hold a California executive of a global cosmetics company to his nonsolicitation and non-compete.

Obtained judgment against a Plaintiff's lawyer on behalf of a technology company who failed to return documents to the Company post-litigation.

Obtained summary judgment on behalf of a global cosmetics company; thus, eliminating the risk of class certification.

Argued en banc before Ninth Circuit on National Labor Relations Act preemption issues.
